

Aid for African Women & Girls (A2WG)

Financial Transparency Report

2025

Funding records, source classification and stewardship statement

This report presents A2WG's financial record for 2025 in a public, professional format. It separates funding sources, amount-stated records, programme purpose and accountability commitments for website publication and donor confidence.

Benevity	Institutional grants	Stated subtotal
US$66,307	US$69,000	US$135,307

1. Basis of Preparation

This Financial Transparency Report presents a management-prepared public summary of amount-stated funding secured by Aid for African Women & Girls (A2WG) during the 2025 reporting period. All figures are presented in United States Dollars (USD).

The report is designed for transparency, donor confidence and public accountability. It is not written as an annual programme narrative; programme outcomes are presented in the separate Annual Report for the same year.

5. Financial Stewardship Statement

A2WG applies responsible stewardship principles to all funds entrusted to the organisation. Financial records should be supported by receipts, bank records, donor correspondence, activity documentation and approval trails. The Finance Director is responsible for ensuring that reporting records remain clear, complete and retrievable.

6. Controls and Publication Commitments

- Maintain clear source-by-source records for each donor or funding stream.
- Retain supporting documentation for receipts, disbursements, procurement and programme delivery.
- Publish annual and financial transparency reports on the A2WG website for public accountability.
- Ensure future updates are approved by the Board of Directors before publication.

7. Board Certification and Approval

This report is certified by the Board of Trustees and approved by the Board of Directors (BOD). The official signatories and dates are provided on the final approval page.
